BONNIE BURR TO ATTEND THEATER

Elusive Maid Will Next Dare Crowds at the Broadway
Home of C. C. C. Products Impresses Her During Tour

(BY BONNIE BURR.)
Yesterday's appointments proved not at all difficult, though on one occasion yesterday afternoon I was in imminent danger of capture at the hands of a woman who got to laughing so that she could not repeat the salutation and gave up.
Should you fail to apprehend me at either of my street appointments today, searchers will have an exceptional opportunity tomorrow for I have accepted a deft from The Toggery to try conclusions with their patrons some time between 1:30 and 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.
A merchandise order for $50 will be awarded any person detecting me in the street, providing the person has in his or her possession the sales check of a purchase.
If you do not identify me there I will meet the Broadway Theater tomorrow night between 7 and 10:30. Should you capture me there you will win $100 in gold for the management of the Broadway Theater, plus an extra prize in any person apprehending me in the theater.
The problem of why one man succeeds where another fails is as old as the world. Great philosophers have filled books with their observations on the subject without really offering any solution other than a lot of pedantic scientific lore that bores the practical individual.
The most plausible suggestion places a man's success or failure with himself; he is absolutely responsible for his own destiny. The inexorable rule is that success comes without conscientious effort. This applies to the humblest as well as the most exalted worker.
PERSONALITY.
The person who performs his task as bravely and honestly as he can advances himself mentally and his rise to better things is certain.
A fair knowledge of the world enables you to pick out at a glance the trustworthy man. Faces mirror the character and mental development.
Every person radiates about him an invisible force, something that attracts or repels us. Men and women unconsciously, by their thoughts and ambitions, fix their own worldly status. We build our personality like a great ethereal castle about us and its unseen rays are as a magnet.
We are all attracted by the glowing personality of the earnest, masterful, enthusiastic character. Success always abides with him.
Enthusiasm is the great the ultimate, success winner. Bred of optimism it impels right thinking. Coupled with integrity of character and honest purpose, it develops dynamic force and power.
Oaklanders have marveled at the phenomenal success of the California Cracker Company, which in a few short years has established and built up one of the largest and foremost baking industries in California; yet in an hour's visit to this wonderful pure food plant, I think I have discovered the keynote to this achievement. It is enthusiasm and an untiring effort to make better products under better conditions. The genial, public spirited head of the big concern radiates enthusiasm. It is reflected in the cheerful faces of willing workers in the big, clean factory at 1201 Park avenue. It has made fame for C. C. C. crackers, cakes and cookies, and fame for Oakland, for no purer or better products are made by any concern anywhere.
C. C. C. the initials of the firm name, is the trademark on all California Cracker Company products. Whenever I see the scarlet package adorned with a triangle, white-lettered with three entertaining C. C. C.'s, I shall always think of a neat two-story brick structure ornamented at all its numerous windows with boxes of pretty flowering plants, with greenery peeping over the edges of the roof and a stretch of verdant green lawn at one side. The name will conjure up a vision of a wholesome factory with its fresh air, its pleasant work under such conditions. It is a joy to gaze upon such a charming, clean place.
PURE PRODUCTS.
There is no secret about C. C. C. products. They are simply 100 per cent pure goods baked after tempting recipes in the cleanest manner known to science. Visitors are welcome at the C. C. C. (Continued on Page 5, Col. 1)

KITCHENER, WAR LORD?

Wilson Appeals to U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—President Wilson appealed today to the people of the United States to remain calm during the war in Europe. He declared the United States owes it to mankind to help the rest of the world during the present crisis.
The president declared the United States could earn great and permanent glory during the present trouble if we remain quiet and no one lost his head. There is only one way to bring peace to the financial institutions of the country, he told the callers, but added that the administration is fully prepared to help all out of difficulties. He urged that no credence be given to unconfirmed reports of a sensational nature.
The president declared there was no cause for any serious alarm in the United States. A proclamation of neutrality, Wilson said, will be issued as soon as it can be completed by the State Department. He does not desire any publicity for remaining in session because of the situation in Europe.
The White House authorized this quotation from the President's remarks to the Washington correspondents.
It is extremely necessary, it is manifestly necessary, in the present state of affairs on the other side of the water that you should be extremely careful not to add in any way to the excitement.
SHOULD NOT SPREAD.
Of course, the European world is in a highly excited state of mind, but the excitement ought not to spread to the United States. So far as we are concerned there is no cause for excitement. There is great inconvenience for the time being in the money market and in our exchanges, and, temporarily, in the handling of our crops, but America is absolutely prepared to meet the financial situation and to straighten everything out without only thing that can possibly prevent it is unreasonable apprehension and excitement.
BEWARE OF RUMORS.
"If I might make a suggestion to you gentlemen, therefore, I would urge you not to give credence to any unverified rumor or (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

BRITAIN READY TO STRIKE

TODAY'S EUROPEAN DEVELOPMENTS IN BRIEF

German troops invaded Russian Poland today and occupied the town of Kalisz.
The German army, violated the neutrality of Belgium, of which Great Britain is protector.
German troops occupied the Belgian town of Arlon.
Belgium had previously refused to consider an ultimatum offering a certain agreement with Germany in case Belgium agreed to facilitate the movements of the German army.
So grave is the situation regarded that a coalition government of all parties probably will be formed in the British Isles, while it was generally expected that Field Marshal Earl Kitchener was to be appointed minister of war.
Dowager Empress Maria of Russia was stopped by the Germans in Berlin on her way to Russia and told to return to London or go to Denmark.
The Russian naval port of Libau, on the Baltic, was bombarded by a German cruiser, which was also engaged with a Russian cruiser.
The German fleet was reported sailing into the North sea, where the British fleet is said to be concentrated.
The German ambassador had not yet left Paris today.
Fighting between Russian and German cavalry patrols on the frontier resulted in slight losses.
French officers are reported to have attempted to cross the Baltic frontier into Germany but unsuccessfully.
French airmen are said to have made daring flights over German territory.
German cavalry is reported to have crossed the French frontier near Belfort and tried to commandeer horses.
Martial law was proclaimed throughout France, where the mobilization and concentration of various armies have been carried out satisfactorily.
The German authorities accuse the French of violating neutrality and of crossing the frontiers before the declaration of war.
British Luxembourg is occupied by 100,000 German troops.
Russian ambassador to Berlin handed his passports.
Martial law proclaimed at Antwerp.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Aug. 3.—A battle was fought yesterday between the German and Russian Fleets off the Aland Islands, and resulted in the Russians being driven back. The Russian war vessels took refuge in the Gulf of Finland, where they still remained today.

England Ready to Strike at German Fleet

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Sir Edward Grey told the House of Commons that he had "given France the assurance that if the German fleet came into the English channel or through the North sea to undertake hostile operations against the French coast or shipping, the British fleet would give all the protection in its power."

It was officially stated here today that the British army would mobilize tomorrow.

COAST MAY SEE FIRST BATTLE OF WAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Conditions here so shaped themselves that the first naval clash between Germany and England may occur off the coast of California between the German cruisers Nürnberg and Leipzig, and the British sloops of war, Shearwater and Algerine.
Information from San Diego is that the orders for the dismantling of the Shearwater and Algerine have been countermanded and that the breech locks which had been taken off the war vessels had hastily been replaced and that they are coaling ready to go to sea for any emergency.
It is reported that the German cruiser (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1)

Sir Edward Grey announced in the House of Commons today that a telegram from the King of the Belgians made a supreme appeal to Great Britain to safeguard the integrity of Belgium.
Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, stated in the House of Commons today that the House was free to define what the British attitude in the present European conflict should be.

A strong belief was prevalent here today that Field Marshal Kitchener is about to be appointed British minister of war. His return to his post in Egypt was cancelled today.

Reported violation of neutral territory by Germany during frontier raids by German, Russian and French troops, clashes between outposts, the bombardment of a Russian Baltic port by a German warship and the seizure of merchant ships by Russia and Germany constituted the striking features today of the war which virtually the whole continent of Europe has started.

Local Banks to Be Put on Gold Basis

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—At a conference of the banks forming the San Francisco Clearing House Association it was decided just before the close of banking hours today that all the members will remain on a gold basis at least until the arrival of emergency currency from Washington. This action, it is explained, will determine that of all other banks on the Pacific coast.
The position to be taken by the British empire remained still to be defined, but it was feared that Germany's seizure of Belgian territory would be a deciding factor which would lead Britons to take the sword in hand, as under the treaty of London of 1839 Great Britain stands pledged to maintain Belgium's neutrality.
Evidences were not lacking of the grave view of the situation taken by all classes in the United Kingdom. Leaders of the opposition parties were called into council by the cabinet and it was reported that the cancellation of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener's (Continued on Page 2, Columns 1 and 2)

If MISS BURR is apprehended in the THEATER the captor stands to win $300.00, for the management of THE BROADWAY has offered $100.00 extra, which is entirely separate from the reward offered by THE TRIBUNE.

MANY KILLED IN FRONTIER FIGHTING

GERMANS ENGAGE RUSSIA'S SOLDIERS, PUTTING END TO INVASION OF JOHANNISBERG

100,000 GERMAN SOLDIERS HURLED INTO LUXEMBURG AND MASSED ON FRONTIER

return to Egypt was a prelude to his appointment as minister of war.

It was asserted in authoritative quarters that due warning had been given to Germany yesterday of the intention of the British navy to take instant action in case a German soldier should set foot on the coast of Belgium.

The Belgian government to accept the agreement offered by Germany as the price and violation of Belgian neutrality, German forces penetrated the little buffer state at two points on their way to the French frontier. The German point of view on the situation thus brought about was explained at the German embassy as follows:

"The German general staff has been reliably informed that French troops are assembling in great numbers on the Belgian frontier preparatory to crossing.

DECLARE IT NOT WARLIKE MEASURE.

"The German government therefore informed the Belgian government that if for strategic reasons German troops were compelled to traverse Belgian territory this move should not be considered in any way a warlike measure directed against Belgium, but only as a necessity imposed by French initiative and that if Belgium offers no armed resistance to such a movement Germany will guarantee the Belgian government the maintenance of its territorial integrity and sovereignty and the fullest compensation for any inconvenience caused by the passage of the imperial troops."

The German embassy also stated that it was quite certain no questions would arise in connection with German troops crossing the Dutch frontier or in any way interfering with that neutrality.

FIGHTING ON THE FRONTIER.

ALLENSTEIN, East Prussia, Germany, Aug. 3.—Fighting on the frontier was confined to small engagements between cavalry outposts until 6 o'clock last evening, but an attack was then made by the Russian invaders on Johannsburg which is occupied by a squadron of the Eleventh Pomeranian Dragoons.

The railroad from Johannsburg to Lyck on the Russian frontier has been cut and also the little railroad running to Blottowen. The losses of the Russian troops are believed to have been about twenty men, while the Germans have not lost any killed, although several have been wounded.

SERIOUS FIGHTING ON RIVER.

VIENNA, Aug. 3.—The militärische Rundschau states that serious fighting is in progress on the River Drian. Bands of Serbian volunteers who are attempting to cross the river are opposed by Austria-Hungarian frontier guards.

The Serbians fired on their own river boats, killing and injuring many men.

SEEK $250,000 FOR AMERICANS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—President Wilson today sent a special message to Congress asking immediate appropriation of $250,000 for relief of distressed Americans abroad.

The Senate today voted to authorize the Secretary of Navy to establish naval lines to carry mail, passengers and freight to South America and Europe. The bill goes to the House.

RUSSIAN SEAPORT IN FLAMES; SHIPS BATTLE

BERLIN, via Brussels, Aug. 3.—The German cruiser Augsburg has sent the following report to Berlin by wireless:

"Am bombarding the naval harbor at Libau and am engaged with the enemy's cruisers. The naval port of Libau is in flames."

Libau is one of the principal seaports of Russia and is located on the Baltic sea, 100 miles or more north of the German coast. It is fortified and used as an arsenal by the navy. The German protected cruiser Augsburg is of 4280 tons displacement and her chief armament consists of 12 4.1 1-inch guns. Her crew aggregate about 400 men.

GEN. MILES DENOUNCES WAR AS UNJUSTIFIED

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—In an address last night before the Equity Congress of Greater New York, an organization for the uplift of the negro, General Nelson A. Miles characterized the European conflict as "a war which promises to be the most destructive in the history of the human race" and "as unjustified as any I have read of or witnessed."

PROF. ARMES STRANDED IN ENGLAND BY WAR

GERMAN TROOPS ENTER BELGIAN TERRITORY

FRENCH RESERVISTS READY. MEXICO CITY, Aug. 3.—Five hundred French reservists will leave Mexico City at the earliest possible moment to join their regiments. The French legation is now endeavoring to make arrangements for a steamer, but if this effort proves unavailing the reservists will leave Vera Cruz on a Spanish liner, sailing August 18.

GREAT BRITAIN IS BIDDING BATTLE HOUR

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Towards the close of his speech in the House today Sir Edward Grey said:

"We must be prepared and we are prepared to face the consequences of using all our strength, at any moment, we know not how soon, in order to defend ourselves."

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, warmly supported the government and referred, amid cheers, to the pledges of support received from the British dominions.

Wild cheering from all parts of the House greeted John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, when he assured the government that every soldier in Ireland might be withdrawn tomorrow and the coasts of Ireland would be defended against invasion by her sons, the Catholics of the south, and the Protestants of Ulster.

James Ramsay MacDonald, Socialist and labor member, declared he was not persuaded that Great Britain was in danger nor her honor involved. He was convinced she should have remained neutral.

The House adjourned until 7 o'clock for a consultation between the leaders of all the parties.

Dealing with the question of Great Britain's obligations, Sir Edward said: "Up to yesterday we had given no promise of more than diplomatic support. I was asked at the time of the Algeiras crisis if we would give armed support and I said I could promise nothing to any foreign power unless it received the whole-hearted support of public opinion."

WILL SUPPORT FRANCE.

"I gave no promise, but I told both the French and German ambassadors that if war was forced on France public opinion in the British Isles would rally to France."

This part of the speech was received with loud cheering. The foreign secretary stated that the British fleet had been mobilized and the mobilization of the British army was taking place, but that no engagement had yet been made by the British government to send an expedition abroad. He continued:

"The French fleet is in the Mediterranean and the northern coasts of France are defenseless. If a foreign fleet engaged in war against France should come down and battle against these defenseless coasts we could not stand aside."

"We felt strongly that France was entitled to know at once whether in the event of an attack on her unprotected coasts she could rely on our support."

"I gave the information to the French ambassador last night that if the German fleet goes into the English channel or into the North Sea to attack French shipping or the French coast the British fleet will give all the protection in its power."

"That answer is subject to the approval of Parliament. It is not a declaration of war."

SOCIALISTS TO DISCUSS ANTI-MILITARIST PLANS

Today the officials of the Socialist party of America plans were to be discussed for an anti-militarist mass-meeting in this city, and it was expected that the national anti-war propaganda proposed by the German language group of the party would be introduced. It has been decided to ask the national headquarters at Chicago to call mass-meetings all over the country to protest against war.

WAR BULLETINS

BERLIN (Via Brussels), Aug. 3.—The German cruiser Augsburg has sent the following report to Berlin by wireless:

"Am bombarding the naval harbor at Libau, and am engaged with the enemy's cruisers. The naval port of Libau is in flames."

Libau is one of the principal ports of Russia, and is located on the Baltic Sea 100 miles or more north of the German coast. It is fortified and used as an arsenal by the navy.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Evening Standard says there is every probability of the formation of a coalition government in the British Isles to tide over the present crisis. Andrew Bonar Law, the Marquis of Lansdowne and Arthur J. Balfour, three opposition leaders, were in consultation with cabinet ministers today.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A Brussels dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph says that the Belgian cabinet's response to the German note offering an entente if Belgium would facilitate the movement of German troops, has been given and is in the nature of a formal refusal.

BELFORT, France, Aug. 3.—A collision between French and German border patrols occurred today near Belfort and at Jecherai, to the southeast. A body of German cavalry advanced to Suaree, also southeast of Belfort, and seized horses which had been requisitioned by the mayor of the commune.

GERMAN COMMUNITY AT MANILA VOLUNTEERS

MANILA, Aug. 3.—The men of the entire German community who are of military age have volunteered their services to the fatherland. Thirty were chosen by lot to proceed to Tientsin, a fortified German port in China.

RIFLES ARRIVE

DUBLIN, Aug. 3.—Ten thousand rifles for the Nationalist volunteers were landed at Ballyshannon, County Donegal, and are being brought to Dublin.

FRENCH LINER HELD; VOLUNTEERS ENROLLED

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 3.—The captain of the French liner Mississippi, which arrived today, received orders to unload as quickly as possible and report to the French consul general here. The consul general would not discuss the order. Hundreds of French conscripts and volunteers are being enrolled by the consul.

OFFICIAL CALL ORDERED.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 3.—Acting under instructions from the French consul general at San Francisco, Louis Rouman, French consul agent here, this afternoon issued a call for all Frenchmen subject to military service to report to him at once "under penalty of the law."

FRENCH TRY TO POISON WELLS.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Telegrams from the chief of the German general staff received at the German embassy state that a French doctor with two assistants tried to poison the wells near Metz with cholera microbes. The doctor was tried by court martial and shot.

Another French party, according to the same source of information, endeavored to blow up a strategic tunnel near Cochem on the Moselle. All were shot.

COBLENZ, Germany, Aug. 3.—

Eighty French officers in Prussian uniforms attempted yesterday to cross the German frontier in automobiles near Walbeck, on the Dutch frontier to the west of Gollern. The attempt was unsuccessful.

SEIZE GERMAN STEAMER.

NOVOROSSISK, Russia, Aug. 3.—The Russian authorities here today

seized the German steamer which left the port yesterday.

MAILS MOVE REGULARLY.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Mails to Europe have moved regularly thus far, according to a statement today by Postmaster Morgan.

TELEGRAMS REFUSED.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Small telegrams were refused at the postoffices in Paris for a period today and it is assumed that the difficulties in the transmission of news and private dispatches will rapidly increase. The concentration of the French troops in strategic places along the frontier and preparation for military train service have been made.

The pillage of a German jewelry store in Paris and other incidents of a more or less grave nature, particularly against the stores of those merchants who have raised the prices of necessities, caused the prefect of police today to placard an appeal to Parisians to maintain order.

Vigorous measures are to be taken against dealers raising their prices to exorbitant rates.

War News From France

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Most of the Paris newspapers have reduced the size of their editions for the sake of economy. The eight-page sheets cutting down to four pages and the four sheets to two.

On every side the questions most agitating the public mind are what Great Britain will do, where is the British fleet and will a British force be landed on the continent.

The male population is rapidly disappearing from Paris, except those above 45 years of age and those under 20.

The underground railways probably will stop running tomorrow. The great public services—the telephones, telegraphs, railways and mails—are daily becoming less available for public use.

Martial law has been decreed throughout France and Algiers.

Baron von Schoen, the German ambassador, had another interview with Premier Viviani Sunday night.

Reports concerning military concentration in France are most satisfactory.

Five persons were surprised today while cutting the telegraph line near Mervillars. All of them were arrested.

APPROVES PLANS FOR RELIEF OF AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—President Wilson today, approved the plans for financial assistance for Americans abroad. The main features are:

American ambassadors have been instructed to issue "ambassador's orders" or checks, in exchange for letters of credit, travelers' checks, or express money orders.

Instructions have been sent by the State Department to American embassies to arrange with the French, British and German governments to cash such checks.

Steamship companies have been asked through American diplomatic officers to accept ambassador's checks for transportation.

The friends and relatives of Americans in Europe needing money may deposit any sum with the State Department here and the equivalent sum will be issued in the form of an ambassador's order abroad.

Two representatives of New York banking houses will start at once for London and Paris to arrange for the further financial accommodation of Americans.

Postmaster General Burleson arranged to issue international money orders limiting the amount to $100 for each person.

BLAMES GERMANY FOR GREATEST OF WARS

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Times in an editorial this morning says:

"Recent events mean that Europe is to be the scene of the most terrible war she has witnessed since the fall of the Roman empire."

The Times throws the blame upon Germany, saying:

"Germany could have stayed the plague had she chosen to speak in Vienna as she speaks when she is in earnest. She preferred to make demands in St. Petersburg and Paris which no government could entertain. She has lived up to the worst principles of the Frederickian tradition, which disregards all obligations of immediate self-interest. She has resolved to crush France and trample upon the rights of those who stand in her way."

"Yesterday it was Luxembourg; tomorrow it may be England she will assail without declaring war."

It makes it necessary to provide for greatly increased expenses. "The view of the emergency of the situation, as above outlined, I recommend the immediate passage by the $250,000 or as much thereof as may be necessary to be placed at the disposal of the president, for the relief, protection and transportation of Americans for personal services and for other expenses which may be incurred in connection with or growing out of the existing disturbances in Europe.

BAY CITY FOREIGNERS ARE READY TO LEAVE

MOBILIZATION OF GERMAN ARMY PROCEEDS CALMLY; STATE TO AID FAMILIES

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—The mobilization of the German army proceeded today with absolute calm. There were few signs in Berlin that anything extraordinary was happening, with the exception of great crowds at the railroad stations and the lack of taxicabs half of which had been requisitioned by the army authorities.

An open air religious service at the Bismarck monument outside the Imperial Parliament House.

A notice was issued by the police stating that the Emperor's strength and time were absorbed by the work imposed on him at this serious hour, and that it was not proper for him to be disturbed by popular demonstrations.

In accordance with the Imperial constitution, the Kings of Bavaria, Saxony and Württemberg have placed their armies under the command of Emperor William.

The Grand Duke of Mecklenburg are to take the field.

The families of all soldiers of the reserves summoned to the colors are to be supported by the state.

COAST MAY SEE BIG NAVAL FIGHT

Nürnberg, which was supposed to be on her way from Honolulu to Samoa, is now in communication with the Leipzig off the western coast of Mexico and they are preparing to get together near Magdalena Bay.

ON TOP OF EACH OTHER.

Should a declaration of war be announced between Germany and Great Britain today, tomorrow or the next day the war vessels of the two nations now on the Pacific Coast will be on top of each other.

In point of armament the British warships are slightly inferior to the Nürnberg and Leipzig.

As the Nürnberg is capable of making 12 knots, her presence on this coast will doubtless prove a serious menace to British merchant vessels, especially coal carriers.

DECLARATION AWAITED.

Nothing but a formal declaration of war between Germany and England, it is believed, is being awaited by the German cruisers to send them in pursuit of vessels flying the British flag.

It is believed, however, that the German and English men-of-war will clash before either will be able to take prizes of war.

The situation has caused much concern to A. Carnegie Ross, British consul general in San Francisco, who is to-day keeping the telegraph wires hot with messages to the commander of the Shearwater and Algerine.

BRYAN AND SHERMAN AGREE REGARDING WAR

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 3.—War is all the heart that General Sherman said, and Secretary of State William J. Bryan is in a position to add a few descriptive epigrams about it, for the war cost the poverty-stricken statesman $750 yesterday, the price of three lectures he couldn't deliver because his presence in Washington was required by the European happenings.

Bryan was slated to get $250 a throw for three lectures on the Connecticut Chautauqua at Stamford, Wallingford and Simsbury, the home town of one of Connecticut's Republican senators, George F. McLean.

Senator McLean was to introduce the well-known statesman at Simsbury yesterday afternoon, but instead he announced to his townspeople that Secretary Bryan felt that he should stick around in Washington during the critical stages and forego the pleasure and profit of expounding on the Connecticut Chautauqua.

GOES INTO LAND OF WARS TO AID WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—R. E. Miller, president of the Owl Drug Company, will start for Paris, France, today to see his wife and sister, Mrs. M. Cowper-Smith, home, if it is possible to get out of the country.

"Answers to my cables have not been sent me by Mrs. Miller," said Miller at the Palace Hotel last night, "and I do not know if, at the present juncture, they have been able to secure ready money for I have not heard from my Parisian broker either. I shall go to England first."

BANKERS AND U. S. GUARD FINANCES

$40,000,000 Emergency Currency Is Sent to New York Treasury.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The decision to enforce the 60-day clause before withdrawals of deposits was reached.

Savings Bank Association. All savings banks in the state are affected.

The clearing-house decided today to issue clearing-house certificates to meet the currency situation brought about by the European war crisis.

Between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 emergency currency arrived in New York today from Washington and was loaded on twenty trucks to be hauled to the sub-treasury. This announcement was made at the sub-treasury after the secretary of the treasury had started back to Washington.

Decision to issue certificates was reached after a general discussion of the foreign situation and its bearing on business conditions here. It was the unanimous opinion that in view of the foreign situation every means should be adopted to protect the country's gold supply. It was voted, therefore, that for the present and until further notice, the association place itself on a certificate basis.

An additional resolution was adopted making available in payment of balances all forms of currency issued on authority of the national government.

This is the first emergency measure taken by the association since the panic of 1907.

WHEAT SLIGHTLY HIGHER.

BRITISH HOLIDAY EXTENDS.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The British government today decided to extend the bank holiday over three days.

CARGO OF GOLD MAY BE WAR PRIZE

Bearing Coin for England and France. Craft Evades Their Ports.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—This government is investigating a report that the steamer Kron Prinzessin Cecilie has a cargo of gold.

The gold bullion she carries is regarded as neutral until delivered to the English and French consigners.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A dispatch from the wireless station on the Scilly Islands says a steamer, assumed to be the Kron Prinzessin Cecilie, passed there at 5:30 o'clock today.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Wireless messages were dispatched today from the home office of the North German Lloyd steamship company in Bremen ordering the Kron Prinzessin Cecilie, which has on board $10,000,000 in gold for London and Paris banks, to proceed directly to Bremen, without touching, as usual, at Plymouth and Cherbourg.

This order, as announced at the New York office of the company here today was taken to mean that the steamship officials proposed to deliver the gold aboard German warships.

The report that the ship was off the north coast of Ireland last night and another that she has been captured by British men-of-war were not confirmed.

The anxiety in New York for this and other steamships increased as the reports of war activities were read today. There was relief in two instances in the arrival of the steamers George Washington from Bremen, Southampton and Cherbourg and the Rotterdam from Rotterdam.

The cabins were crowded with homecoming tourists.

The Hamburg-American line officials here learned today that their steamer Albatross, destined for Jamaica, had put back to Cartagena, Colombia, rather than run the risk of entering a British port.

The Allamania of the same line, which had sailed from New York for the West Indies, returned to port today. The Graciosa from the West Indies arrived here today.

Agents of the Austro-American steamship line announced that the steamer Kaiser Franz Josef I, which was due to sail from Trieste and Fiume on Saturday, would be delayed indefinitely. The steamer was held up by the movement of craft flying their flags. German Consul von Schack was yesterday ordered to detain all German ships and to request the officers who hold commissions in the German naval reserve to report home as soon as possible.

GERMAN STEAMER IS DETAINED THROUGH WAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—With the actual beginning of hostilities between the powers, foreign shipping in San Francisco will probably be bottled up for an indefinite period. While the agents for British and French vessels had not received orders as to the movement of craft flying their flags, German Consul von Schack was yesterday ordered to detain all German ships and to request the officers who hold commissions in the German naval reserve to report home as soon as possible.

The effect will be felt immediately by vessels of the big Kosmos fleet, which make San Francisco a regular port.

When the Kosmos fleet, which includes the Leipzig, the Karlsruhe and the Leipzig, arrived here from Mediterranean ports the Kosmos steamer Sarpis was ordered held here, and the same order applies to other vessels of the fleet, including the Setos, which will be recalled to the Sound from her voyage to Sydney, and the Alexandria, which is en route here from developments will have on this coast and the Antipodes remains to be seen. Vessels of the Union Steamship Company, operating between Australia and San Francisco, and of the Canadian Pacific line plying out of British Columbia are in the path of German warships in the South seas.

What effect the German seizure of the Nürnberg, which was here recently and which left Honolulu a few days ago for German Samoa.

THE PACIFIC MATTERS—The Persia and Nile

—flying the British flag are also in waters where they could be readily overhauled by German men-of-war.

Whether Captain T. J. Minister of the German, who is a lieutenant in the Royal Naval Reserve, will be permitted to answer his country's call is another question. It was Captain Minister who was instrumental in saving the lives of many Americans at Manzanillo during the United States-Mexican war some two months ago.

REPORTS GERMAN DEFEAT IN AIRSHIP ENGAGEMENT

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Standard publishes a report that a French airship, which met and engaged a German airship in mid-air, rammed and destroyed it. The Standard fails to give the sources of its story.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent sends a message from Brest, The Netherlands, that 2,000,000 men have been called to the colors.

Many of the railway lines, says the correspondent, are reserved exclusively for the transport of the troops. The men are in excellent spirits, all of them singing. The authorities have taken the control of all the motor cars and most of the motor trucks.

The proclamation of martial law has entirely crushed the Socialist opposition. All light-heartedness has shut off their lights.

INDUSTRIES STOPPED IN CUBA DURING WAR

HAVANA, Aug. 3.—The Dutch cruisers Hortensia and Jacob Van Heemskerck took on coal here today and sailed. The steamer Neckar of the Lloyd Bremen line, which arrived on tour, today landed her passengers and is to remain here. The passengers will be taken to Calcutta aboard another steamer.

Six thousand workmen and other workmen have been laid off by the cigar factories of the so-called combine in Havana in consequence of the suspension of orders from Europe. The independent factories will also suspend operations this week.

AM BASSADOR OF GERMAN REMAINS

Fails to Leave Post in Paris; Capital Is Now Deserted.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—The German ambassador was still at his post in Paris today and there was no indication of his intention to leave.

Today presented a deserted appearance. All the auto-omnibuses and most of the taxicabs had disappeared, having been requisitioned by the army while a large proportion of the men had gone to join their regiments.

Special trains have been reserved by the authorities for the transportation to Paris of foodstuffs, particularly milk. A decree was issued threatening with severe measures any one attempting to raise the price of food.

In the neighborhood of the American embassy crowds of Americans gathered seeking passports or identification papers. The ambassador gave all of them certificates bearing a large seal declaring that the bearer was an American citizen and giving his home address and profession.

Each volunteer was also being offered for service. Should their countries call for them, thousands of Europeans have already volunteered for military service. The French consul general, has been busy enlisting his countrymen.

CZAR MEETS HIS PEOPLE: CHEERED

Will Not Make Peace Until Enemy Goes, He Declares.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—The czar spent a historic day on Sunday. When it became known that a special service of prayer was to be celebrated at the winter palace, where the Emperor was to show himself to the people, an extraordinary wave of exultation passed over the city, testifying to a desire of the public to show their loyalty and patriotism.

Hours before the appointed time for the service a crowd of 100,000 gathered at the scene bearing flags, banners, portraits of his majesty and placards with patriotic inscriptions.

When the imperial yacht with the Emperor and his family arrived from the dock at 4 o'clock in the afternoon they received a tremendous ovation. The people at the wharf and hurrahs as the imperial party passed to the palace.

When their majesties had taken their places for service the czar read the declaration of war to a deafening applause. The Russian army and their majesties venerated the holy cross and the ikon.

The Emperor then addressed the representatives of the army and navy in a brief speech, expressing a calm dignity with which Russia had received the declaration of war and the confidence of the nation that the war would be carried to the desired end.

"I have always believed," the Emperor said, "that I will make peace while a single soldier of the enemy remains on Russian soil."

His majesty concluded with words of encouragement to the army and by invoking a blessing on their efforts. While the Emperor was speaking all in attendance fell to their knees and many were seen to be sobbing. At the close of the service there were renewed hurrahs and the officers presented drew their swords and brandished them in the air.

His majesty then retired from the balcony, where he had been standing, but the people remained for a long time to continue their cheering.

SAN FRANCISCANS TO SERVE IN FRENCH ARMY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Michael Weill and Paul Verdier, two of the wealthiest members of San Francisco's younger smart set, have heard the call of France to arms and have reported for duty with the French army.

Michael Weill is the nephew of Raphael Weill, with whom he expected to return here from France the latter part of this month. Raphael Weill has been in France for six months.

Two months ago Michael Weill left San Francisco to visit his father, a prominent Parisian banker and a member of the firm of Lazare Freres. Just after he had made all arrangements to accompany his uncle back to San Francisco the reserves were called in and young Weill, who has never renounced his allegiance to France in spite of his residence here, immediately reported for duty.

Verdier, well known in the business and society life of San Francisco, and a member of the polo set of the peninsula, left San Francisco for France on April 1, and arranged to leave for the United States last Saturday. He called yesterday from his father's country home at Meux that he would not return, but had surrendered his services to his country.

FRANCE FORBIDS WAR SECRETS IN JOURNALS

PARIS, Aug. 3.—An appeal to the press today asks the newspapers to use caution in publishing the news about the war which might help the enemy. It recalls the imprudent revelations in 1870 and the aid afforded in this way to Germany at that time, and declares that any news published without the consent of the military authorities renders the offenders liable to a charge of treason.

The fact that France intends to mobilize her forces to the last man is indicated by a bill to be introduced in parliament tomorrow, permitting men who have failed to present themselves for military service to join the army now without liability to punishment.

Deputies from the French colonies have an appeal today to colonial residents in Paris to offer their services to the government.

OAKLAND PATRIOTS, FRED WITH WAR ZEAL, TO FIGHT FOR THEIR NATIVE LAND

Australians and New Zealanders of the bay region will gather tonight to discuss the news of the war and offer their services should they be called on to fight. The meeting is to take place at 816 Sixth avenue and 7th street, president of the Australian Society of America, will address the men. The Australians and New Zealanders about the bay number about 2000.

According to the Australians, Germany should the Kaiser's troops defeat or partially defeat Great Britain, will at once turn its arms against the United States.

and prepare for any such attack. The local Australians and British colonists are to meet.

"We will simply ascertain who can enlist for such defense if necessary," declared Davidson. "Then we will call the muster of defense at Melbourne, the men available here. We have had hundreds of offers, one even from a clergyman."

BRITISH TO RALLY. "Not only have the Australians and New Zealanders been aroused by the news of the coming war, but the British to the fight. There is a reason why Germany should covet Australia. It is larger than the United States, and has a population of only 5,000,000. Germany needs a colony for her growing population."

In fact, every foreign nationality represented in California are preparing for enlistment for the struggle in Europe. Mass meetings in San Francisco and Oakland among the French, Germans, and English have already taken place in many instances. M. Monnet, the San Francisco French consul general, has been busy enlisting his countrymen.

GREEKS MEET.

Flery speeches last night greeted the Greeks at a great mass meeting in San Francisco, where both sides of the bay were represented, the sons of Hellenas making all plans for a return to their country should war break out. The meeting was held at Great Alexander hall, Peter Trippis, president of the local Greek society, presiding.

The Greeks declared their sympathies are with the Serbians, but the speakers pointed out that, despite this it is possible that both sides of the bay will make an alliance of this kind impossible. In either case, however, the Greek speakers urged all loyal Greeks to be ready to fight.

That the triple entente will have the advantage in securing men is declared by experts in war matters. It will thousands of military reservists of England, France, and Russia, as well as many large bodies of trained men, are believed that the three former nations will have the advantage of mobilizing men in Canadian territory and their additions to the fighting armies.

KAISER CALLS MEN.

The Kaiser has also called for his men in foreign countries. The message urging Germans to enlist in the German army is the shortest possible route.

"Those subject to military duty who have not yet reported on that account are hereby requested to return to Germany by the shortest route."

"Whoever is unable to defray the traveling expenses will have to report to the nearest military authorities."

The circulation of the foregoing announcement has caused much excitement. General Baron Ehrhardt von Schack, brought forth the action of the Kaiser of the Germans in San Francisco yesterday. The German consulate at 201 Sansome street at the office of the German residents of the city, and the news of the immediate mobilization caused excited groups to gather at the vicinity of the consulate, and in different sections of the city to discuss the various phases of the war.

The French reservists have been ordered for general mobilization, according to Consul Raphael Monnet from the French ambassador at Washington.

6000 FRENCHMEN HERE. It is estimated that there are about 6000 Frenchmen in or near San Francisco who will be affected by the French call to arms. Yesterday, though the news of the mobilization of the French reservists had not yet reached the city, about 100 responded to the call and presented themselves at the office of the French consul in the French bank building.

All during the day, while papers were being examined and transportation arranged, the French reservists were crowded into the office of the French consul, stood by his father's side and mingled with the reservists, who crowded the office in civility.

"Viva la France" was often heard, and the appearance of the French flag at a time when the reservists were being examined and transportation arranged, was a source of great interest to the French residents of the city.

One of the first reservists to report to the French consul was a former sergeant of the French Foreign Legion and a veteran of the Chinese war. He was a reservist of the French Foreign Legion and a veteran of the Chinese war.

In the compact interior arrangement of the factory is to be found as complete a cracker and biscuit factory as could be seen anywhere. It is splendidly equipped with the most modern automatic machinery science has yet contributed to such an industry. There are huge white tiled ovens. The baking ovens are automatically flushed from the building.

Seventy-five employees, mostly attractive girls, assist at the pleasant task of cake and biscuit making and seem content as a great family.

All Californians are fond of C. C. C. wafers and favorite Krenoma crackers. They are made with exquisite skill and care. Then there are dainty treats, such as Cheese Straws, Pink Teas, Flg Bars, Vanilla Wafers, Grahams, C. C. C. assorted and delicious Chocolate Eclairs in quality and flavor they are supreme, but they are just a few of the trumps in cookery for which the big plant is renowned. There is a delicious cake for every occasion.

I saw the whole wonderful process of cake and biscuit making. Baking is always fascinating to me, especially on such a large scale.

The chocolate eclairs are from an original C. C. C. recipe. They are made by a wonderful automatic machine of costly and marvelous invention. The chocolate eclairs are a really delicious confection, consisting of a dainty foundation cake, a puff of whipped cream, the whole enveloped by a coat of mellow chocolate.

All C. C. C. crackers and cakes are sealed in air-tight cans for the grocery trade, also in paraffined individual packages.

Quality products have made C. C. C. a success.

AN EASY FEAT.

Yesterday afternoon's beautiful sunshine jammed big Idora Park with Bonnie Burr searchers but, despite this fact, eluding capture was an easy feat.

Music, life and entertainment diverted the crowd from the search and almost lured me to forgetfulness of the fact that there was a price on my head, so to speak. I visited several of the amusement concessions myself and even had my fortune told.

I rode out to the park in my Oldsmobile, passing in at the gate on foot at about 3:05 o'clock. There were no watchers at the entrance inside nor outside and my companion and I walked straight ahead toward the main buildings.

We encountered a man fantastically costumed in Oriental habiliments, who offered to tell our fortunes. The fortune teller promised to disclose much of the mysterious future by the power of his magic wand. I listened intently to his "spell."

"Here, lady," he addressed me, "do you want your fortune told? Maybe you'll catch Bonnie Burr."

"How much?" I inquired.

"Ten cents," was the reply.

"What are your initials?"

"I came very near replying 'B. B.' but I thought myself in time and said 'E. L. I.'"

He took a blank piece of paper from a pad, wrote the initials on it, and with similar sheets from others standing around rolled up the piece of paper and placed it in a glass wand. Then, after a few passes and charm words, he pulled out the papers one after another, and behold, they bore messages! I was very much puzzled for I am sure the paper was blank when it went into the tube.

NEARLY OMINOUS.

Mine was quite lengthy and interesting, warning me that some sort of misfortune was liable to befall me any moment. I laughed, wondering if I would be captured and assuring myself that this would be good fortune, not misfortune.

As we were about to move on I overheard a conversation between a man in a gray suit and a woman dressed in blue. Both carried OAKLAND TRIBUNES and were gazing at me.

"It may be her," the woman said.

"None," the man declared positively. "She doesn't measure up to identification pointers. I read them every day. She is too tall."

A glance at my high heels would have convinced him that they added somewhat to my stature, but he was not observant. Do not overlook this feature. It is easy to add a few inches to the height or create the illusion of detracting a few inches from the height.

We walked on to watch those who were patronizing the "Shoot the Rapids" concession. We stood about twenty feet dis-tail, looking on the harbor advised the crowd to join in the fun.

"Bonnie Burr is here right now!" he called.

Bystanders smiled at his cajoleries and some good naturedly bought tickets.

As we stood there an excited woman of about 35, dressed in gray with black hat adorned with blue flowers, accompanied by a man in a suit and tie, regarded the happy crowd.

Then suddenly I noticed she was staring at me. I looked full at her and she commenced to laugh hysterically.

"Wait a minute, Frankie," she said to the child, and walking over addressed me, "I am just going to get into this foolish game," she said, "and ask you if you are Bonnie Burr. If you are not don't be offended," and she went into gales of merriment.

"Certainly not," I said coolly.

SHE BEGINS.

Recovering herself somewhat she held up her paper and tried to repeat the salutation.

"Pardon me, you are the mysterious Bonnie Burr?" here she broke off and again subsided into merriment.

Persons standing about began to take notice and to laugh in sympathy.

"Oh, this is too foolish," I finally exclaimed, "I can't make a fool of myself."

I laughed quietly but made no comment. I reflected that had she gone on with the salutation, finishing it correctly, she had omitted "Miss," and I felt vexed at her for her lack of courage and for not knowing the correct form of address.

Searchers ought to learn the simple words before joining in the search. A word omitted or transposed will lose you the prize.

After a tour of the amusement colony we started for the gate. As we were passing the fortune teller I heard hasty steps in my wake and experienced a momentary shock when some one tugged at my coat.

I turned to behold a smiling elderly woman. A dazed expression replaced the smile.

"Oh! I beg your pardon," she apologized, "I too, you for a friend of mine."

She was tall, slim, gray-haired and attired in black.

We left without further incident.

EVENING TRIALS.

In a change of disguise I returned to Idora Park last evening, experiencing less difficulty, if possible, in keeping this date than the earlier one. I really believe I could have ventured into the park entirely undisguised.

It was 8:25 when my companion and I entered. We made at once for the brightly lighted concessions, making a tour about without many incidents.

In front of the amphitheatre at a dare from my companion I approached and accosted a young lady who assumed a haughtiness that was quite ludicrous. A young woman with her, her sister, judging by a strong resemblance, became very angry and asked me if I were crazy.

The young women were with a middle-aged man, whom I took to be their father. They were similarly attired, wearing modish blue suits of different shades. One wore a white, the other a green hat.

I addressed the salutation to one wearing the white hat. The scathing look from head to foot which she gave me was marked by juvenile exaggeration.

The man was frankly amused.

"Maybe you think I'm Bonnie Burr," he said whimsically.

The sister turned on him angrily. "The idea! I don't see anything funny," she said snarling. "Then to me 'you must be crazy to take this girl for Bonnie Burr.'"

I laughed. "Are you crazy?" she demanded.

"None," I answered complacently, smiling at the father, who deliberately winked. The girls turned their backs on me and started away in indignation.

"Well," I heard the voice of the man as they left, "you wanted to come here and look for Bonnie Burr."

Next we visited the motordrome and as I mounted the steps, my watch, which was on a fob and in my belt, fell, and the crystal was shattered.

"Serves her right," remarked a stout woman in a black and white coat. "The idea of wearing her watch like a man! We went up and saw the race and then came down again."

My further adventures were really not worth a note.—Adv.

ARMY DEFICIENT, GEN. WOODS SAYS

Improper Equipment and Scant Forces Are Serious, He Urges.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—What a tiny army when compared to the great armed hosts moving in Europe is that of the United States, is pointed out by Brigadier General Leonard Wood in his annual report as chief of staff of the army, made public today.

It shows that the actual strength of the army is 4602 officers and 80,000 enlisted men scattered over the world, and the general declares that to maintain a force within the United States sufficient for even a small expedition and the police work of the day, it would be necessary substantially to increase the regular establishment.

General Wood suggested that infantry regiments be brought up to 100 men per company, that 300 new regiments be added and recommends twelve additional battalions of field artillery. There should also be seven more companies of engineers, he says, and some additional technical troops, as the Philippines, Hawaii and Panama have greatly increased our responsibilities and adequate garisons for these possessions can be provided only by reducing the home army.

FATAL DEFECT.

The general most urgently renews his former demand for more guns and ammunition for the field artillery, regular and volunteer units, and states that they could not be obtained to meet an emergency because of the length of time required to manufacture them. That, he says, would be fatal to success in time of war.

In Hawaii and in Panama, the report says efforts should be made to complete the force construct barracks and put the army upon a footing of the highest efficiency. The establishment of a secure and sufficient naval base at Guantanamo is said to be of great value in the defense of the Panama canal.

American troops in the Philippines have been concentrated in the vicinity of Manila and satisfactory progress has been made in all that relates to the permanent fortification of Manila Bay. The condition of the army on the southern frontier has continued to be satisfactory and the mobilization has been very valuable.

General Wood speaks in terms of high praise of the workings of the new methods of handling military offenders, which, he says, will save to themselves and to the country a very large body of men who have heretofore been thrown out of the government and the army. Therefore, he recommends the extension of the policy and says:

PERSONAL CONTROL.

"The building up of what may be described as a man-to-man relationship between officers and men will do more to improve discipline and diminish desertions than any other one thing."

Measures recommended for adoption include the bill changing the term of enlistment and providing for an adequate reserve; the militia pay bill (if it insures the services of the militia whenever asked by the federal government); revision of the articles of war and the organization of the army, in addition to those urged for adoption last year.

Twenty-two Packed Into "Borrowed" 5-Passenger Car; Three Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Twenty-two young men packed and jammed in to a five-passenger automobile, started out on a joyride in different parts of the city.

Just a half dozen blocks. When they saw a blue-coated policeman. When the officer had finished blowing his whistle and firing off his revolver, three of the crowd had been caught and were charged with driving away an automobile without the owner's consent.

Patrolman Harvey A. Delms thought he was seeing things when the marching band rounded the corner of Army and Valencia streets. There was a man perched on every projection. They were sitting on the footboard, standing on the seat, wraddling the engine and balancing themselves on the headlights. At sight of the officer they jumped and ran. They fled in twenty-two directions. Delms could follow but one. He blew his whistle, the engine was gone, the man refused to stop. Finally, however, he caught his man living in the doorway of a saloon in Powell alley. He gave his name as Matthew Meyer, a teamster, 19 years old, and was charged with disturbing the peace, retaining an officer and misappropriating an automobile. Patrolman John Crumplings was riding on a Valencia car and he saw the pursuit and caught Edward Swanson, an apprentice, who was similarly charged. Later, Richard O'Neil, a clerk, was taken into custody, but the other nineteen got away.

TWO INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Victims Suffering From Probably Fatal Fractures, Cuts and Abrasions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Two men were seriously and perhaps fatally injured in two automobile accidents in different parts of the city early this morning.

The car was the property of T. J. McGowan of 375 Park street, who was surprised when the police took him up at 3 a. m. to tell him it had been stolen.

Stratton Is Eminently Fitted; Entitled to Election

Frederick S. Stratton, born in Oakland, and resident of Alameda county all his life, ought to receive the vote of every elector. His candidacy for Justice of the Appellate Court has met with unqualified favor in all parts of the district, reaching from San Francisco to San Benito counties.

The editorials and articles which have accumulated in Mr. Stratton's behalf are almost innumerable, and some of them will be published later.

It is a singular circumstance of a man who has been before the public for nearly twenty years could not spring up spontaneously unless there was merit which called for recognition at the hands of the voters of the First Judicial District. Mr. Stratton was born in Oakland, at what was since known as Badger's Park. He graduated at the old Sweet grammar school, went through the Oakland high school, and subsequently graduated at the State university. During the latter years when he was seeking an education, he was acting as reporter and setting type. He became very expert in both of these vocations. He has a natural sympathy for the toiler, which does not come from the ordinary seeker for judgeship, or other preferment.

It is within the knowledge of a great many that Mr. Stratton was offered a place in Congress, but refused to accept. At a meeting held in San Francisco, which combined all elements, he was the choice for Governor, but under circumstances which do him credit, he refused to be a candidate. He was also offered the support of many journals for United States Senator, but did not care to enter the field. Mr. Stratton represented from 1897 to 1900 Alameda county in the State legislature as State Senator. He was an expert on primary election laws and drew up every such law from 1897 to 1909. He was particularly and peculiarly in advance of his time in endeavoring to do away with technicalities and delays in the trial of cases. He was the author of a bill which forced through the legislature amending Section 475 of the Code of Civil Procedure, which does away with all technicalities, not only in civil, but criminal cases as well. That section, although not enforced by the courts, is on the statute books today. Subsequently there has been a constitutional amendment which deals with criminal procedure, but this merely follows the amendment to Section 475, which was the Stratton bill before the State Senate in 1897, only his measure covered every class of litigation.

It is a singular circumstance of the reputation of the man that in making a study of the Civil War he delivered an address in Berkeley on the "Lost Cause" dealing with the underlying reasons of the great rebellion, and giving due historical reasons to both sides. This address was called for by the Gettysburg committee and at the reunion of the Blue and the Gray. Mr. Stratton was invited to repeat his speech on that occasion, but he did not care to cross the continent to deliver it. In any event it met with the approval of both North and South on account of its fair-mindedness, and lack of prejudice in dealing with so delicate a question.

Mr. Stratton was Collector of Customs under President McKinley, twice under President Roosevelt, and once under President Taft. No one of his employes has ever intimated that his faith was not kept, and that he did not administer the duties of his office in a manner to win the admiration of the Washington officials, and in fact of the entire community.

All of this time, however, Mr. Stratton was sitting as quasi justice, officially deciding legal questions and matters of law. He was also senior member of a law firm, and gave part of his time daily to the duties of his law office. He therefore became singularly conversant, not only with practice, but with judicial matters of the people. He has been styled often as an Independent or Progressive Republican. This by reason of the fact that he was his own master, following his own ideas and accepting dictation from no one. Those attorneys who know him best are conversant with his legal ability and with his character and unerring decision relating to legal questions. Probably no three men are more qualified to judge as to attributes which go to make a successful lawyer than Judge W. W. Morrow, presiding justice of the Circuit Court of Appeals, Chief Justice Wm. H. Beatty, of the Supreme Court of California, and Judge W. C. Van Fleet, United States District Judge. These three eminent jurists have in writing, which is of record in the office of the Secretary of State, declared that Mr. Stratton is their candidate for Justice of the Appellate Court, and that they will support no other person for that office.

Judges like Morrow, Van Fleet and Beatty are independent; they cannot be reached or influenced by mere friendship, and therefore the voting community can rest upon their assurance that they consider Mr. Stratton most eminently qualified for this place among all the candidates who have been mentioned.

It is a singular fact, too, that while Attorney Stratton had a hard struggle himself to receive an education he was so sympathetic with those who are laboring that in a broad and proper sense he was in the legislature, and has been so since, the friend of laboring men—not as politicians term it, but in the larger and better sense of the word. It comes from the heart, and is not put forward merely for the purpose of gaining votes.

Stratton recognized the fact that church property ought to be exempted from taxation. He struggled for years over an amendment to the constitution, and churches of every denomination, regardless of faith, have the benefit of the work which he did in forcing through the amendment which gave churches the benefit of tax exemption. He also advocated the exemption, not of his own university at Berkeley, but was broad enough to introduce and put through an amendment exempting Stanford from taxation. This has won the gratitude of friends of education throughout the state.

But above all, Attorney Stratton was anxious to better the then existing political system. He was the author of the famous Stratton primary law, and re-enacted that measure twice so as to meet the favor of the Supreme Court, and in addition forced through the amendment to the constitution which placed the primary laws in their proper category, and allowed them to be enacted without the fear of unconstitutionality. When he, however, was in the legislature, the question of a direct primary law was not then considered, but measures of a proper character were being fathered by him.

The people wish an upright and impartial judge. For twenty years before the public not a word has been said against Frederick S. Stratton. He has lived in Oakland all his life, and those who have known him from boyhood are his friends today. The people might for a while be deceived, but in a case like this of Mr. Stratton, his favor with the multitude has lasted over twenty years.

The voters are stating on every side that it is not a question of Mr. Stratton's fitness for judicial office, but rather it is a question of congratulation that a man of his type should consent to go upon the bench. If it be urged that he has not held court before, it could likewise be said that in the Supreme Court of the United States the most august tribunal of the world, has from time to time employed members of cabinet and lawyers who have never served upon the bench.

Abraham Lincoln himself followed the precedent when he appointed Salmon P. Chase from his cabinet to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The people therefore, can rest assured that at the primaries and at the election following, Mr. Stratton will receive an enormous vote, in which men of all parties, regardless of affiliations, will unite in making him a Justice of the Appellate Court.

WHY MEAT PRICES ARE STEADILY INCREASING.

Hitherto all explanations concerning the steady advance in the price of meats has been that population has increased practically 21 per cent between 1900 and 1910, while cattle, hogs and sheep have decreased nine, seven and one-half and 15 per cent, respectively; that consumption has tended to increase; that the ranges have been exhausted; and that many other causes have intervened. But, on the other hand, large imports of beef have been received from Argentina; here on the Pacific coast several shiploads of Australian mutton have arrived; then why the continued high prices and recent increases?

Officials of the department of agriculture have attributed the reason to the fact that the cattle and swine raisers, both at home and abroad, have but one customer—the beef trust—and have alleged that this combine has received support from the railroads, which have refused transportation facilities. The railroads are resenting this imputation, but admit that their own facilities are such that they cannot handle the meats in competition with the great packing companies that own their own refrigerator cars, which the roads are barred from using in private business.

One Eastern system declares it would be glad to handle all the beef from Argentina it could get, but at the same time declares it cannot ship in cars owned by the big packers, and that no road can afford to equip itself for meat shipments unless it has positive assurance that there will be plenty of meat to handle. With packers using their own cars there is no demand for facilities of that sort on the part of the roads. But, says the management, let any one assure us there will be continued importations of beef that will require us to fit up such cars and we will gladly do so.

Looking further into the matter it is found the packers are handling the greater part of the beef imported from the South American republic, using refrigerator steamships for the purpose. They have packing houses there and it is related by the time the American railroads were equipped to handle meats from that section the trust would control the supply.

So there we have the situation. In what course of conduct lies the solution? It looks as if some method would have to be devised for putting the trust out of business if we want cheaper meat, and this task will be a difficult one. Perhaps Mr. Bryan may find time during the intervals between his Chautauqua courses to suggest something in the nature of a remedy, or that the Congress, which is fretting and sizzling in Washington, halting between a desire to adjourn and a wish to do something, might be persuaded, if properly approached, to act in the premises.

Seriously, the situation is becoming grave and it will be a man's job to correct its deficiencies.

M. M. Estee, the Republican nominee for governor, opened the campaign in a manner that augurs well for victory in the great contest which is to come. An enormous throng, numbering well into the thousands, packed the wigwag in response to the notifications sent out. Mr. Estee's address was masterly and profound. P. B. Governor Markham issued a manifesto from his headquarters at Sacramento, declaring his stand on the strike, what he did for peace and order, and concluding as follows: "I believe I have stated facts sufficient to convince any unprejudiced person that throughout this strike I was cognizant of every movement made by either side. My being at Pasadena did not in any way interfere with my efforts. My first duty was to aid in the protection of life and property. My next was to bring about a peaceful reconciliation between employer and employee, to allow the bitterness of feeling engendered by the unwise movement to subside, to impress upon the minds of the injured party the virtues of forgiveness and to restore to their places those who had committed no violence against person and property."

RATE DECISION APPEAL IS HINTED

Rehearing May Be Urged at End of Two Years, by Roads.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Although overshadowed by a great European crisis, the Interstate Commerce Commission's decision in the freight rate case, a matter of first importance to the United States, was discussed in official circles here with widely different views. The commission's action in allowing practically all the advance the railroads asked west of

W. Va., and denying absolutely those east thereof, was pronounced by some as a favorable decision and by others as decidedly unfavorable.

Much attention was attracted by the dissenting opinion of Commissioner Daniels of New Jersey, President Wilson's first appointment to the commission. His contention that a general 5 per cent advance should have been granted was taken by many to reflect the White House view. It was pointed out, however, that Commissioner Hall of Colorado, also appointed by the President, was with the majority in deciding that no general increase was warranted.

MAY ASK REHEARING.
In view of the divided decision, the probability of a request for a rehearing, possibly after two years, the period in which those increases allowed will be effective, was considered among the moves the roads might make. The commission's intimations that rates in the territory where increases were granted still were low was taken to forecast an application for further increases in that section. A general movement for an increase in passenger fares, in view of the commission's suggestions in that regard was considered as among the early probabilities.

The next immediate move in the situation, however, will be a determination of how the railroads shall increase their income by eliminating certain extensive free service to shippers, granting of passes and other drains upon their income. Their participation in corporations not entirely engaged in the business of transportation is another of the things which the commission says should be removed. Investigation also is being conducted to bring a conclusion on these features.

REFERENCE TO MANAGEMENT.
Aside from the commission's conclusions as to the rate increases, one of the outstanding features of its decision was its references to the financial management of the roads. "No one could reasonably contend that the public should pay higher transportation rates because once prosperous properties—like the New Haven, the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, the Alton, the Frisco, or the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton—now are in need of additional funds as a consequence of mismanagement," said the decision.

"Many railroad investments in this country are exceedingly profitable to their owners. The proceeding before us, therefore, be described as, in some sense, a controversy between the consuming public which pays the rates and the investor who furnishes the facilities for moving the freight; and our duty is to ascertain from the record before us what are their respective rights."

OLDEST WOMAN VOTER.
VISALLIA, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Susan E. Sides of the Seventh ward, is the oldest registered voter in Tulare county. She is 92 years of age. Her husband, James G. Sides, was 93 last April. She is a dry voter, a Republican in politics and a Presbyterian in religion.

WOULD HEAD SCHOOL SYSTEM MISS DOUGHERTY IS CANDIDATE

MISS ALICE H. DOUGHERTY OF LIVERMORE, CANDIDATE FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

Miss Alice H. Dougherty of Livermore, a candidate for Superintendent of Schools of Alameda county, is making a vigorous campaign.

Miss Dougherty was born, raised and educated in this county. She first attended a country school in the Livermore valley, later graduated from the San Jose State Normal school, and has taught in both ungraded country and in graded city schools for over nineteen years. Miss Dougherty taught school and served on the Board of Education for three years in Merced county, taught more than fifteen years in Alameda county, and is now one of the highest teachers on the preferred list of leave of absence from the Oakland city school department.

Miss Dougherty is now serving her fourth term as the grand secretary of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, in which office she has displayed exceptional executive and business ability.

Miss Dougherty says:

"My life work has been in the schools of Alameda county. I am familiar with every detail of the school work in the county as well as in the city schools. Our public school system is a credit to Alameda county. The teachers and school people have a right to feel proud of our schools. I am proud of the fact that I am counted as one of their number, and when I am elected Superintendent of Schools of Alameda county, as I hope to be, I will still be a member of my chosen profession, in a position to offer and give assistance to the teachers, pupils and school people with whom I have been so long associated."

BRUTALITY CHARGE IS INVESTIGATED

Aged Man and Witnesses Word Passed Against Policeman's.

Conflicting stories regarding the alleged beating of James Logan, aged 68, and charged on Saturday night that he was, while lying paralyzed, kicked and beaten by a policeman, who imagined him drunk, have caused confusion in the account of the matter now on the police report. Officer Pat Conley, declared to have taken the man to the hospital, has been completely exonerated. He did not handle the case, although it was declared at first that he had. Patrolman Thomas O'Neill was the man who dragged Logan to the police ambulance that took him to the hospital. Logan fell from a barstool, injuring his spine and was paralyzed. According to O'Neill's report he did not use his club on the man. Witnesses, however, declare that they saw O'Neill tap Logan on the soles of the feet with his club, after the fashion of policemen awakening "drunks." Logan declares that he was kicked, struck with the policeman's club, slapped and dragged to the patrol wagon.

This story he adhered to when Police Inspectors Kyle and Hodgkin interviewed him at the hospital. D. E. Norris, 5584 Fremont street, who saw the man placed on the wagon, declared that the policeman handled the patient gently. Mrs. A. Stark, 5588 Fremont street, who called the police to aid the man, declares that O'Neill used his club on the man's feet.

"The policeman thought that I was drunk, although I said I was not," declared Logan. "He said that I had fallen off the wagon, and kicked me in the back to make me walk. Then he hit me on the feet with his club and slapped my face."

According to the Emergency hospital reports, Logan, while not drunk, had been drinking. Dr. E. B. Dowdle, who interviewed the man, declares that he probably has an exaggerated idea of his wrongs.

Logan's attorney, J. C. Abbott, would be as brutal as the man said, declares Dowdle. "Still, I hardly think it was right to hit a paralyzed man. He stuck by his story in the main. I know but little about it. The man has a cracked vertebra, causing paralysis."

According to O'Neill he carried the man when he found that the latter could not walk, but did not strike him. The police claim that the man is a habitual drinker. He fell from a porch on the house he was living in.

Chief of Police Petersen is examining all angles of the case.

CLAPP AMENDMENT LOST.

DEATH AND INJURY STALK IN TURN

One Woman Killed, One Fatally
Wounded Near Santa Fe
Richmond Terminal.

RICHMOND, Aug. 2.—One woman was instantly killed, another fatally injured and the babe carried with them on their way that ended in disaster, was brought to safety on the cowcatcher of the engine that brought death to the woman. Mrs. J. H. Wenhil, 10 years old, was killed. Mrs. Jeremiah V. Coakley of Richmond sustained a fractured skull and other injuries.

The baby, 11 months of age, was only slightly injured.

The women, who had been for a walk, attempted to make a short cut by walking through the Santa Fe tunnel near the Richmond terminal. When within the tunnel they found that "The Angel" train that they had not figured on, was bearing down upon them.

The women, becoming confused in trying to get the baby from the train, were caught by the front of the locomotive. Mrs. Wenhil at the time was standing directly on the track.

Mrs. Wenhil, who is 70 years of age, had been visiting Mrs. Coakley from San Bernardino, where her home was. The women, with the babe, had spent a day at the beach and were walking home.

Smoke from another train which had passed through the tunnel made it difficult for the engineer to see the women on the track.

The body of the woman was removed to the morgue and Dr. C. C. Abbott, the coroner, summoned Engineer C. C. Kennedy brought his engine to a stop late to save the woman. A stop late to save the woman.

Cowan, 127 Tunnel avenue, was a witness to the accident. He is not blamed by the authorities and an ordinance forbidding pedestrians entering the railroad tunnel being planned by the city council will be urged again following this accident.

RESPONDS TO CALL OF GERMAN FATHERLAND

Emil Schneider, a son of Germany employed by a tailors' trimming establishment in Oakland, is about to respond to the call sent out from the fatherland for fighting men. Orders have been issued to the German subjects residing in this vicinity to report in San Francisco as soon as possible. Those whose initials fall within the alphabetic register of A to K will go to war via the North German Lloyd, while the rest sail via the Hamburg-American line.

The time of departure has not been definitely announced, but will be either tonight or tomorrow. Teuton patriotism and battle spirit are rising high and numbers around the bay are rallying to the military call of the emperor.

He will probably spend several days in Oakland and while here will be the guest of Managing Director Joseph E. Caine and other officers of the Commercial Club. Corbaley has had wide experience in city boosting and his ten-minute talk will be an interesting feature of the members' committee meeting. The Spokane visitor will be shown round Oakland by Caine.

IMPOSED UPON GENEROUS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—"Will you give me 10 cents so that I can get something to eat?" said William Jamison to a citizen on Haight street this morning.

"Let me see," said the man, who happened to be T. J. Stanton in plain clothes, as he reached for his hand-cuffs and took Jamison into custody. Searching the beggar's pockets he found $8.85 in nickels and a bank book showing deposits of $569. He had been watching him prey on an unsuspecting public for half an hour.

PREFERS JAIL TO WAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Achilles Suiago, a suspect of Russian espionage, charged with malicious mischief, "Are you liable for military duty?" inquired his honor.

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Would you rather go to war or to jail?"

"I think jail would be preferable," said the defendant after much hesitation.

"I'll give you until tomorrow to think it over," concluded the court.

POLICE CAPTURE THUG AT SCENE OF ROBBERY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Quick work on the part of the police brought about the arrest of Manuel Smith, who a few moments before had taken part in a robbery this morning and later confessed. The victim was Frank O'Reilly of the Hotel Gates.

He was walking along Geary street, near Laguna, when a short man ordered him to throw up his hands. A moment later a tall man crossed the street and went through O'Reilly's pockets taking valuables to the amount of $25.

The victim hurried to Fillmore street, where he found Officers Collins and Johnson. They returned to the scene and caught Manuel Smith, who was identified by O'Reilly.

An attempt was made to rob Charles Taylor, a resident of the Winchester Hotel, in McBride's saloon, 130 Third street at 1 a. m. Oscar Lohrie, a pressman, accused by Taylor, was caught after a ten-block chase by Policemen Tottinger, Meyer and Glover. Several shots were fired during the pursuit. Lohrie was charged with attempted robbery.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO BOOST FOR BOULEVARD

With the commercial organizations back of the proposition the supervisors will take steps to have the improvement effected in time for the first influx of autoists for the exposition.

PARTNERS, NOT MASTERS.

"So long as the United States government continues responsible for the people of the Philippine Islands we shall do our share of their government as partners, not as masters," declared Wilfred T. Denison, secretary of the Interior of the Philippines, in a recent address on "Democracy's Mission in the Philippine Islands" before a meeting of the City Club in Manila.

Denison, who is a brother of A. A. Denison of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, said: "There is no doubt that the policy of the administration of the Philippines will be in accordance with the fundamental principles of democracy."

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallous, Paris, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel like a bomb about to explode. Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." ## LIFE IS LOST IN BIG CLOUDBURST

Property Damaged $100,000
and Railroad Traffic Stopped Near Colorado Springs.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 3.—A cloudburst, centering ten miles north of here late yesterday afternoon, reaped a toll of one life and did damage totaling $100,000 in this vicinity. The Fountain creek was on a rampage last night, sweeping down the Fountain valley toward Pueblo. Railroad traffic is demoralized and the fertile truck gardening district south of this city is a waste of mud and debris.

Colorado Springs suffered heavily from the storm. Two large viaducts in the city are out and damage to the streets is estimated at $50,000. All the bridges in this vicinity were swept out and the roads are almost impassable. The water mains in this city are out of commission. Street car traffic was abandoned early last night.

It will be noon today before any trains will pass through this city, according to local railroad officials. Long stretches of track of both the Santa Fe and Rio Grande railroads, ten miles north of Colorado Springs, are out.

MISS
NANCY BAKER, who is among

THE Duke of Westminster has found a house, and Burlingame breathes again.

It looked awfully—for a time—as though the duke might not come. Couldn't find a place in San Mateo county to house himself and his entourage and stable his polo ponies. No one could stand a chance of the duke's not coming. Westminster is England's craggiest polo player, if there is such a word, and his visit will be an everlasting inspiration to San Mateo polo. Richard Tobin had to assure his coming. Offered the agent his place for the duke, who would be very much at home there, since the Tobin place is the most English place in Burlingame.

However the sacrifice may not be required of Richard Tobin after all. El Cerrito is at the disposal of the duke. The De Sabias are willing to lease it and the duke is considering. If he doesn't take the De Sabia place he may have the Tobin place, so it really seems settled.

However Richard Tobin wouldn't miss the season, that has pure polo appeal for him, socially thrilling as it may be for others. He'd probably visit the Clarks.

A more thrilling possibility than the duke's visit is rumored in Burlingame. The king of Spain may visit Burlingame next spring. He, too, is a polo player of distinction and socially supreme. He is a romantic figure in the rather dull set of European royalty. But this is still a visit of rumor and the duke's coming is assured.

Chronic Laryngitis, Called Sore Throat

(By Lillian Russell)

Copyright, 1914, by LILLIAN RUSSELL

THIS is by far the most important form of laryngeal disease, since it springs from only slight causes and is a common and distressing malady. It always ends in injury to the voice and too frequently in consumption.

The symptoms are generally mild in the beginning and there-

In one or the other side of the throat, or a tickling sensation which provokes coughing, seems unimportant, but it necessitates clearing the throat continually by rasping to clear the windpipe. Hoarseness becomes a habit and a great change takes place in the breathing—it becomes loud but shorter until one breathes no deeper than the larynx. The ob-tubes below, the voice is changed; at first it is hoarse and then gradually becomes more feeble as the disease progresses till it is scarcely audible.

Ulcerations of the vocal cords take place there is a total loss of voice. In the majority of cases only a feeling of obstruction is experienced, and the effort to clear this away occupies a great part of every conversation with a friend. It is most distressing, especially to the friend.

Chronic laryngitis frequently occurs from excessive use of the voice. This form of disease is common in clergymen, baseball fans and chorus girls, as well as in lawyers and public speakers. The vocal cords, by straining and over-use, become exhausted and lose their tone.

There are various phases of this disease, from the slight huskiness to the entire loss of voice from which many people suffer.

The most intimate connection exists between affections of the throat and those of the larynx. The reason is easily understood. Every breath you draw passes directly from the inflamed throat into the larynx. Thus, both different parts of the same tube and are covered by a common membrane, one over the other.

lack of attention at the proper time.

The tone of the speaking voice should be listened to—it is a veritable thermometer. When it is clear and musical the larynx is generally normal, but when it is weak and husky the health should be looked into. Throat affections are the forerunners of typhoid fever and almost every other disease. Cure the first slight itching in the throat, and you will more than likely prevent a serious illness.

Remember, neglect always re-venge itself upon the negligent. Attack the first enemy and you have the battle practically won.

Answers to Queries.

S. H.—Round shoulders are certainly a beauty destroyer. A round shouldered girl can never look smart, for smart women are particularly straight and erect in figure. Clothes never hang properly on badly shaped shoulders. I think it is much better to wear shoulder braces than to have stoop shoulders. Deep breathing exercises are excellent for round shoulders. I am sure you can force yourself to hold your shoulders straight. If you care for directions for deep breathing send me a stamped, addressed envelope and I shall gladly send them to you.

W. E.—No, do not use a wire brush on your hair. This pulls and breaks the hair off. The best brush to use on the hair is a soft bristle brush, not too stiff. The bristles should be long enough to reach the scalp when brushing the hair. Keep your brush clean. After using it, it is a good plan to dip it into warm water, to which a little ammonia has been added. This removes all the dust and dirt from the brush.

M. G.—You requested me to send you the formula for reducing the lips, but you failed to send me your address or a stamped, addressed envelope, so I am printing it: Melt one ounce of cold cream in a double boiler, using no more heat than is required to keep the mass in a fluid state. Add one gram of tannin powder and one dram of chopped camphor root and let it stand for six hours. Strain through a cheesecloth into a jar and stir until cool. Rub into the lips night and morning. Thick lips usually come from biting them, and often from mouth breathing. Hold the lips firmly and cultivate decision of character. You never see a decisive person with thick lips.

K. G.—A girl of 12 has plenty of time to acquire strength in her arms. The exercises you are doing, such as tennis, swimming, etc., are excellent for strengthening the arms. You are doing and cannot hope to have the strength in your arms that a girl of 15 or 20 would have. I am glad you like outdoor life and sports. There is nothing more health giving. Get all the fresh air and exercise you possibly can. The straight arm stroke in swimming is most strengthening.

TO GIVE TEA.

Mrs. William Romane has sent out cards for a tea to be given next Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Leslie Brown, who returned this summer after graduation from an Eastern finishing school. She will go East over the Southern Pacific route and will join Lieutenant Donovan at Annapolis, where they will be stationed for the next two years.

Flora Newman, Oregon Girl Is Heroine; Meets Death

Mrs. Mason got beyond her depth, and Miss Newman rushed to help her sister, but got into swift water, went down in a big eddy and was seen no more. Mrs. Mason found a footing and saved herself. The body of the drowned girl has not been found.

ASKS DIVORCE; HER HUSBAND IS IN JAIL.

STOCKTON, Aug. 3.—The aftermath of a criminal proceeding which resulted in the sentencing of a man to a year in San Quentin and the incarceration of a woman in a private school at San Francisco is the filing of a divorce complaint here by Mrs. Hattie M. Caulkins against Sylvan E. Caulkins.

Plaintiff alleges that her husband is now serving time in the penitentiary and declares in her complaint that he was found guilty by a superior judge of a serious offense.

No other allegations than the foregoing are made. The Caulkins were married June 25, 1913.

THE LADIES LOVED HIM. DECLARE POLICE.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 3.—W. N. Fitzgibbon, under arrest at Santa Clara for the burglary of the office of State Senator Frank H. Benson and Alvin Long in this city, has made love to women and girls of refinement all over the country.

It is proved by a suit case full of letters which he has received at various hotels, including the St. Charles at New Orleans. From the letters it appears that he was in contact with the ladies in Louisiana and Tennessee, for no less than many of the ladies in those states.

Considerable gossip exists that Fitzgibbon gave to a degree, was able to detect in many instances when he was caught red-handed. He would go into an office building during the noon hour, open a safe of a lawyer or doctor, and if the owner happened in would gravely and plausibly introduce himself as the agent of a safe maker and explain that he was showing how easily

Madame Ise'bell

Says Intestinal Fermentation a Common Source of Bad Breath.

THE BREATH—Part II.

A disordered stomach is often referred to as a common cause of offensive breath, but in truth the trouble generally lies in the intestines. Constipation lies behind most cases of bad breath of this sort. The gases arising from fermentation are quickly absorbed by the blood, carried to the lungs and from there thrown off by the breath. If constipation is present, it is almost a certainty that the breath is more or less tainted.

The causes for constipation are many and vary so with the individual that it is impossible to go into this subject further than to point out some of the simpler means of prevention. Negligence, a sedentary life, eating too concentrated food and lack of exercise are the most common causes and they can all be overcome by some change in the manner of living.

Eat Food With Bulk.

If we ate food for its nutritive value only, many items common on the table would be discarded. Beef, eggs, bread with a certain amount of sugar contain all that is necessary for nutrition, but to keep the body in perfect working order, food of a coarser kind is necessary. This explains the health-giving qualities of some of the coarser vegetables, such as cabbage, turnips, dandelion greens and so forth. Food which is relished by those who live sufficiently active lives to digest them. For more delicate organisms fruit is the best bulk supplier and in some form should be eaten daily. Apples, pears, grapes, oranges and figs are particularly useful in this connection. A glass of hot water with the juice of half a lemon in it drunk on arising cures many stubborn cases of constipation. Physical exercises, especially those that call the abdominal muscles into play, are most effective and when carried out regularly with an appropriately arranged diet can be relied on to effect permanent cures.

An offensive breath that comes from fermentation is often remedied by a diet composed largely of butter, cheese. Some cases of constipation are due to a lack of fat in the diet. Those who do not eat fat meat should supplement this deficiency by taking a generous amount of olive oil, butter and cream. An excellent lubricant for the bowels is a suit case full of letters which he has received at various hotels, including the St. Charles at New Orleans. From the letters it appears that he was in contact with the ladies in Louisiana and Tennessee, for no less than many of the ladies in those states.

Strongly Smelling Foods.

Any food or drink strongly flavored, which is not eaten as soon as the process of digestion is started, the odor is absorbed by the blood, carried to the lungs and from there thrown off by the breath. The strength of such odor differs with different people and the odor always exists. Strong mouth washes, the use of tooth powder, chewing gum or munching on pastilles will do much towards concealing any odor arising from eating strong food, but they will not be relied on to cover up the effects of constipation or fermentation.

Congressman Describes Duties of Senator and Discusses Democratic Tariff

FRESNO, Aug. 3.—Enthusiasm unprecedented in the San Joaquin Valley in the whole campaign, greeted Congressman Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda county here from the time of his arrival in the valley to speak as candidate for the United States Senate.

At this time Saturday night Knowland spoke before a cheering throng of men and women. He drew banner crowds at Fresno and at Turlock, and broke records for attendance in his meetings at Hanger and other places. He spoke in the large clubs of this region and in all the surrounding country.

On his arrival at Fresno he was greeted by a reception committee from the Knowland Senatorial Club of Fresno and escorted to the courthouse where he made an open air address before the colorful people of A. L. Hobbs presided.

Congressman Knowland is of "Lancaster" of service in Washington's influence and power. The Eastern states have recognized this and their members are returned year after year.

The two United States Senators from Massachusetts, both first saw service in the House of Representatives. One of the members of the Senate is composed of former House members.
California's interests are so diversified that no state is more interested in national legislation. We have our river and harbor projects, our irrigation problems, tax questions, and this locality is particularly interested in legislation for the Yosemite National Park.

GREAT EXPERIENCE.

"We are fighting each year for larger appropriations for the park. Automobiles have finally been allowed to enter the national park, but the restrictions are to the minds of many, too severe, preventing many automobilists from enjoying the trip into the valley.

"Ten years' experience in Washington has acquainted me with the requirements of the federal government. I feel therefore in a position to render greater service than a new man.

"I am proud to have fought against the Democratic tariff law, which has been so detrimental to every section of California. The tariff of the federal importers was more potent with the Democratic Ways and Means Committee than that of the raisin grower, the citrus fruit grower, the walnut producer, the cattle grower, and representatives of other California industries. The reduction in the duty on raisins has had its effect on importations. For the first six months under the Democratic tariff 3,172,628 pounds of raisins were imported, an increase in pounds of 82 per cent, over a corresponding period under the Republican tariff.

"For the month of April, of this year, importations increased 314 per cent. For May, the last month for which I have the figures, the increase over the corresponding month, one year ago, was 293 per cent. It must be borne in mind that the agents of the foreign raisin craze have not been in the field long, but they are now reaching out for our markets. Every pound of foreign raisin imported displaces the California grown raisin, and its effect will eventually prove most disastrous to the California raisin grower.

FOREIGN TARIFF MAKERS.

"In the reduction of duty on Zante raisins, the Greek legislature through the State Department, took a hand. In this instance the foreign vote prevailed against the protests of the California raisin growers. For April, 1914, 1,248,072 pounds of Zante raisins were imported; an increase of 47 per cent.

"For the first six months the importation of figs under the Democratic tariff showed a 15 per cent increase. This was up to the first of April. For the month

RAILWAYS AND FREIGHT RATE
TRAINMEN TO IMPOUND TO

Plan of Federal Board to Prevent Stopping of 98
Lines.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Managers of the western railways have accepted arbitration of the wage dispute with their engineers and firemen.

The railroad managers just before noon advised the President they would accept the plan proposed by the federal board of mediation, which has already been passed on favorably by the representatives of the engineers and firemen. The plan provides that the question of wages shall be arbitrated under the Newlands act and that rules and regulations enforced prior to October, 1913, shall be restored.

Immediately after the call of the railroad managers the federal board of mediation was notified of the favorable outcome.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Increases in freight rates on all the railroads west of the Mississippi River are being prepared for submission to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The applications of the western railroads for more revenue will be presented as soon as they can be prepared in the required form.

Managers of the western lines, according to the best information, are prepared to contend that they need more revenue to meet the increasing expenses of operation and to point out that their lines are in even greater need of relief than the eastern lines because of necessarily longer hauls and less density of population.

No intimation has reached the Interstate Commerce Commission of the percentage of increase for which the western railways purpose to ask. The lines affected extend from the Mississippi River to the Rocky Mountain territory. The roads traversing the Pacific Coast may not be affected.

given by General Carranza after a telegraphic conference with General Alvaro Obregon in Queretaro.

General Obregon reported that the division of the northwest under his command and that of the Northeast, under General Gonzales, had formed a junction at Irapuato, where sixty men were killed.
Obregon and Gonzales began today their march to Pachuca, the first important point toward the capital held by the Federals.

General Flores of the Division of the East and Central now holds a position in the suburbs of Pachuca.

BATTLE IS HEAVY.

IRAPUATO, Guanajuato, Mexico, Aug.
1, Via El Paso, Texas, Aug. 3.—General
Alvaro Obregon, commander of the division of the northwest, arrived here today and his troops are mobilizing here for the movement on Mexico City. This place is only sixty miles northwest of Mexico City. Obregon's forces probably will converge with those of General Jesus Carranza.

Irapuato was taken after heavy fighting. After the troops under Colonel Miguel Acosta drove back the Federal outposts, General Lucto Blanco, Obregon's cavalry chief, attacked Irapuato on July 24. After a three hours fight the Federals retreated, but were defeated.
Blanco promptly followed up his advance and with his two cavalry brigades crushed the 2500 Federals on July 25 at a ranch ten miles east of here.

During the fighting the Federals lost about 200 killed and 800 prisoners. Blanco's losses were about the same.

MRS. GLADYS C. LAFER, WHO HAS FAILED TO BRING ABOUT PROCEEDINGS LOOKING TO FINAL DIVORCE DECREE.

'INSANE'—HATFIELD
Father of "Love Pirate" Gains
Delay in Police Court Inquiry.

That Frederick Bosely Hatfield, alias Frederick Keats Hamilton, "simultaneous bridegroom," is insane and should become the ward of the state was the declaration of Dr. W. F. Hatfield, father of the accused man, who today secured a continuance of his son's case in the police court until next Thursday. Hatfield announced that he was about to swear to an insanity complaint against his son.

"It is the only way to save the boy from himself," declared the father.
"I will take the matter up with the district attorney."

Hatfield's father arrived today to take charge of the defense of the man. Hatfield himself also on his prisoner's cage, nervous and dejected.

"I will give you until Thursday for proceedings," declared Police Judge Mortimer Smith. "At that time I shall hear this case without further delay.
You have plenty of time for insanity proceedings today."

Hamilton, who is facing charges of having secured $300 from Mrs. W. A.
Kinsner, sister of Mrs. "Johnny" Mac-Dunbar, one of his brides, was not confronted by any of his wives today. Mrs. Bertha Arlett Connor Hamilton, whom he deserted in Oakland, was not called and remained in San Francisco, where she is now living.

A. J. Mount, a local banker, was on hand to testify that the man's check, which Mrs. Kinsner cashed, was not good. Mrs. Kinsner also on hand.
Mrs. R. L. Hyde and Mrs. M. M.
Wicke, matrimonial agents, were also subpoenaed, to show that the man had planned his marriages systematically.

Whether the proposed insanity proceedings, declared the only way to save Hamilton from prison, will be successful is doubted by the police.
Chief Peterson had the man examined by Dr. O. D. Hamlin and Dr. W. H.
Irwin and both physicians pronounced the man apparently sane.

The man was dejected and morose
throughout the hearing this morning, scarcely speaking. A large number of women were on hand to catch a glimpse of the "love pirate."

The man, who eloped with Mrs.
"Johnny" MacDunbar here after deserting Bertha Arlett Connor Hamilton at the St. James Hotel in this city and was captured in Oklahoma, has four jilted brides to answer to.
Whether any will prosecute is not yet known. In the meantime the police are prepared to press the Kinsner bad check charge should his attempt to prove insanity fail.

SAVED FROM DEATH

Fireman Heroically Rescues Woman, Unconscious From Smoke, at Local Blaze.

Stupefied by smoke, and almost helpless, while flames raged about her, Mrs.
R. V. Motherskill, 6529 Dana street, was rescued from death early this morning by Police Lieutenant Bert Curtis of the Northern Station, when the latter, making his way through the smoke and fire, hurried the woman to safety. The fire destroyed the Motherskill home and two adjoining flats, which were gutted.

Mrs. Motherskill awakened to find her room full of smoke, shortly after the police and fire departments, hurriedly summoned to the scene arrived. Curtis, investigating, and finding that the woman had not fled from the flat with the nightworn parade that escaped from the others, entered, searching the place for the missing woman.

Mrs. Motherskill, when found, declared that she would remain in the room and guard her belongings. She was partly delirious as a result of the smoke, and Curtis was forced to pick her up and carry her to the open air.

The fire started in the cottage at 6519
Dana street, occupied by Louis Gean-hold and family. No one was home at the time. It is believed by the Fire Department that a defective flue is responsible for the trouble.

The cottage burst into flames as the Fire Department arrived, spreading the fire to the roofs of the adjoining houses.
The other damaged cottage was that of J. C. Grimshaw, purchasing agent of the Sally Smitting Works.

The Genhold cottage was burned to the ground, and the other two buildings were badly burned. The damage will exceed $5000 according to the Fire Department estimate. Furniture was damaged by smoke and water and partly burned.

hailed to the city prison and the three were arraigned on gambling charges before Judge Samuels this morning.

CARRY LOOT IN WAGONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Two wagons were used by burglars who stole 800 feet of lumber and carpenters' tools from the building in course of construction at 20th and Market streets early today. The lumber was the property of John Simard of 1539 Eddy street.

which contained $500.

fall term recently for drunkenness,
and who escaped last week from the city chain gang, was recaptured early where he will finish his sentence. He was arrested at Ninth and Harrison streets, near one of his old haunts.

REPAIR ESTUARY BRIDGE

Supervisors Make Ready to Let Contract

Bids for laying new flooring on the Webster street bridge were opened by the Supervisors this morning and contracts will be awarded next Wednesday. There were three bidders for the job, the P.
Pacific Floor Sanding Company, Atchison & Sons and the Ransome-Crummey Company. The work will entail an expenditure of about $10,000. Bids for constructing the Hayward-Dublin road were offered by the Ransome-Crummey Company and P.
H. Hoar.

That San Francisco's avenue bridge across the estuary is badly in need of repair for the safety of passing trains and traffic, was called to the attention of the board by the Southern Pacific Company. The matter was referred to County Surveyor Hayward.

Liquor licenses were granted to Joseph Solon of Mission San Jose, and Jack Johanson of Mt. Eden, there being no protests.

BEATEN BY ROOM-MATE
IN ATTEMPT TO ROBBERY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.— Awakened by a stunning blow on the head at 3 o'clock this morning, Carl Schueter of the Atlantic Hotel, 138
Clay street, found his room-mate, known as "Frenchy," standing over him with a heavy wagon bolt, trying to beat him into insensibility. He struggled with his assailant and screamed for aid. Several other lodgers became aroused and the proceedings ended in a riot.

He met "Frenchy" hurrying down. The latter told him he was going for a doctor and the real situation was not disclosed until the man had escaped. Schueter, whose injury is serious, told the police that "Frenchy" was endeavoring to obtain $70 which he carried in a money
bag. He was treated at the Harbor hospital.

POLICEMEN PROVE THEY HAVE COURAGE, ANYHOW

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Two red signal lights flashing their alarm simultaneously on Market street
early this morning caused Corporal Neil and Policeman Ritter of the Harbor station a bad quarter of an hour.

The lights constitute the burglar alarm at the dock horse store of Paul Seller's Electrical Co., 322 Market street. Both doors were secure, but the trap leading to the basement was open. With revolvers and flashlights, the officers descended prepared to shoot, but after searching the premises found no one.

The burglar apparatus had gotten out of order.

Campfire Hiker

Graceful Dancer

WILHELMINA WHITE.

In the various trips enjoyed by the Campfire Girls, Wilhelmina White of Bushy Park playground, was among the enthusiastic walkers. She is not only a dancer, but a hiker and a very graceful dancer.

Many hiking expeditions have been planned for the season. There will also be a number of social gatherings and informal affairs given by the members of the Onwanto Campfire girls' group.

The girls of the Blue Birds' society of Bushy Park playground gave many attractive parties during the summer. The girls of the organization, which is the junior auxiliary to the campfire girls, are busy engaged now in making their costumes for the fall season. They will place them on the grounds. The little girls of the society will be glad to receive a letter.

OAKLAND BOYS' CLUB PLAYERS TO TOUR U. S.

Refreshed by a trip through the northern part of California, members of the Oakland Boys' Club are now preparing to organize a musical company which will tour the United States in 1915. The club has been organized for many years and has been a success in many ways.

Two bands have already made tours of California. The first band of the Oakland Boys' Club was awarded the first prize in 1912 at the Sacramento State Fair and was captured second prize in 1913.

"While the last trip was not a big financial success," said F. E. Mummert, superintendent of the Oakland Boys' Club, "the club was able to meet all traveling expenses on the tour. Considering the general conditions, we have no complaint to make."

After their tour the boys permitted nothing to escape them. This has been one of the most interesting trips ever made. The railroad company provided the boys with a special train and the scenery could be viewed to the fullest extent.

The boys traveled by train continuously since June 11 and during that period gave numerous open air concerts.

QUERCULI BOYS' CLUB TO RAISE AGE LIMIT

As the result of an extemporaneous debate conducted by members of the Querculi boys' club of Golden Gate, an amendment will be made to the constitution of the club raising the age limit of the organization to 14 years. Heretofore the age limit was 12 years.

The Querculi Club is now preparing for a series of debates, requiring considerable research work on the part of its members. The rehearsals of the orchestra have also commenced. The club is planning an "original stunt" to be given at the baseball benefit, which is scheduled for the coming season.

The dramatic club will give a number of performances this season. There are many talented boys in the club, which was organized about two years ago in the Golden Gate branch library of the Oakland public library.

GOOD GRAIN CROPS.

DANVILLE, Aug. 2.—Farmers in the San Ramon valley report good grain crops. Threshing is in full blast throughout the valley.

It is well known Hayward threshing machine men, barley averages 25 sacks to the acre and oats from twenty-five to thirty sacks per acre.

SHOT FOR DEER.

LIVERMORE, Aug. 2.—Taken for a deer as he made his way through the brush, G. C. Hultberg of 325 Linden street, Oakland, was shot there yesterday.

He sustained a severely wounded hand as a result of the accident. The hunter firing the shot was not located. The man was rushed to Oakland, where Dr. A. C. Smith treated his injuries.

GERMANY URGES

NEUTRAL ENGLAND

Counsellor for Embassy in London Issues Earnest Appeal.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Dr. R. von Kuhlmann, counsellor of the German embassy here, today issued a remarkable appeal for the neutrality of England in the European turmoil.

It said in part:

"The maintenance of British neutrality would in no way injure France. On the contrary, it might be argued that by remaining neutral, Great Britain could give France exactly as much strategic assistance and a good deal more effective diplomatic help as, according to all reliable information, there is no intention of sending the British troops to the continent, and as a result of her neutrality for the time being."

"All England can do for France is to protect her northern coast from invasion and prevent the neutral ports of Belgium and Holland being used as bases for armed aggression against France."

"Germany would be disposed to give an understanding that the world not attack France by sea in the north or make use of the sea coast of Belgium and Holland if it appeared that Great Britain would make this understanding a condition of her neutrality for the time being."

"The French government engaged, could hardly alter the balance of power."

WHEAT FIGURES TEND DOWNWARD

Absence of Foreign Demand Has Heavy Influence on Market.

Wheat market today tended downward. A sense of any immediate foreign demand was largely responsible. The opening which ranged from 1/2 decline to 1/4 advance was followed by a general setback of 1/4 to 1/2, and by a rally which was in some cases complete.

Renewed business developed as a result of announcements that there would be no rail-road strike interfering with the movement of wheat. The market closed steady, 1/4 to 1/2 net lower.

Corn traders paid little attention to wheat news. After starting 1/4 to 1/2 higher the market moved further and more easily to the net lower.

News that the threatened railroad strike would be a material addition to sympathy with the weakness of provisions, the May option falling more than 5c. The close was 1/2 net lower.

Liberal selling at times on the part of elevator houses weakened the cat market. From 1/2 to 1/4 net lower and more land, and were pressed. Shutting down of foreign call for land and the stoppage of ocean sailings brought about a stop loss selling.

ISABELLE FLETCHER HOME ALASKAN PLAY FAVORITE

Pantages Offers Star
Bill; All Oakland
Theaters Busy

OAKLAND'S theatrical favorites often leave Oakland to return as headliners in bigger acts; and another instance of this was seen yesterday, when Isabelle Fletcher, Chas. Ayres, and George Knowlton, all as well known to the average Oaklander as the average Oaklander, left for the footlights at the Pantages. Willard Mack's latest sketch, "The Game" was the vehicle. The Oakland favorites presented a little masterpiece in a masterly way.

Miss Fletcher is cast as a wife with a "history," living in the Canadian in Ayres, while Tom Loftus is the "villain." In the plot, Miss Knowlton, who will be remembered as one of the old Idora Park favorites, does a clever bit of character work as a neighbor. The part is small, but her cleverness makes it one of the gems of the act.

DEALS WITH LOVE.

The playlet deals with love, adventure and "romance." To expose the plot would be to rob of a treat, and the bit Napoleon, the world's greatest chimpanzee comedian, does everything except talk, and little bit, for that, to clear to have a human brain, is even more intelligent—which is natural, perhaps. They perform a number of tricks, and show the ultimate triumph of the animal trainer's art.

Jewel and Jordan appear in a decided comedy. They whistle—but no one ever heard whistling like theirs. They make out of a schoolboy's bad habit a high art. The Callarini Four, musicians, offer a remarkable musical act, the boy of the family especially receiving rounds of applause. He plays a cornet and several other instruments, and does it well—as in fact, do the rest.

THEY ROLL HOOPS.

The Alpha Troupe, hoop rollers open the bill this week, which, perhaps, can be declared the best Manager Pantages has ever produced in Oakland. Galloway and Roberts present blackface comedy, and Barnes and Barron are seen in "After the Reception," a lively bit of comedy.

Next week, it is announced, will see "The Schoolmaster," elaborate comedy, presented by the Hendricks-Belle Isle Co.

ORPHEUM

"The Schoolmaster" is a comedy, presented by the Hendricks-Belle Isle Co.

"I look like a raspberry punch, Leon," Leon still fingered the violin.

"You see, he thought I was going to say something else, didn't you, Leon?"

Leon had to laugh.

Thus did Tridle Friganza, who's declared to be about 180 pounds of clear humor, win her way into the hearts of Oakland theatergoers and break up Leon's dignity at the same time. Leon, of course, being L. Kowalsky, orchestra leader when he isn't busy being "joshed" by Tridle.

But seriously, if humor can be considered seriously, and for Tridle it's a serious proposition, (as it means bread, butter, and perhaps a little jam on the side), Tridle presented one of the most remarkable acts ever seen on the Orpheum stage. She didn't use elaborate costumes, big stage settings, or the many accessories to a star. She did most of her work in "One"—or before a drop, and there wasn't any adornment about her to even hint that she was one of the great ones.

NAPOLÉON.

using the old melodies of the Southern Darkies, where the banjo really came into its own. Their rendition of "My Old Kentucky Home" is notable.

Al and Miss Corradini's menageries, the Sebeck, bag punchers, and eventual motion pictures round out the bill.

COLUMBIA

Mike and Ike, regardless of war in Europe, are still busy with their own private War With Woe—and their last mirthful battle was fought out yesterday when their new comedy, "The Bull Fighters" was placed before the public at the Columbia. Added and abetted by the Ginger girls, Vilma Stech, Ruby Lang, George Spaulding, Frank Harrington, and the rest of their company, the two generals in the army of fun proceeded to macerate poor Woe until there wasn't anything left to him.

The comedy this week is an hour or so of nothing to do, laugh, Mike and Ike have more troubles than ever before—and therefore they're funnier. Catchy musical numbers add to the joy of the occasion. Cuba's scene and the bull fight is the feature.

The Irishman and his Hebrew companion start out with excited ideas of themselves in particular, and end up with a real idea of humanity in general. Several catchy musical numbers add attractiveness to this week's show. Among the numbers which enliven the offering are several by Miss Stech, Miss Lang, and the Ginger girls. Frank Harrington also sings.

MACDONOUGH

Perhaps no greater set of films have ever been taken than those of Annette Kellermann in the poetic marine idyll, "Neptune's Daughter," which will play this week. This wonderful and beautiful sea fantasy was written for Miss Kellermann by Captain Leslie T. Peacocke and was filmed by the Universal Company at a fabulous outlay. The locale of the picture is in the Bermuda Islands and the tropical beach scenery there affords a charmingly complete and satisfactory background for the story of the film.

The realism of scenic detail necessary in such a tremendous undertaking can hardly be imagined and it was only after the most exhaustive search that a place sufficiently attractive, which combined the beauties of shore and sea, was found in the Bermudas. There are over eight hundred feet of film used all together, every foot of which is beautifully colored by a new process of color photography. Miss Kellermann, a veritable sea nymph, and auring maid, has surpassed herself in her best swimming and diving exhibitions. The film will be shown every afternoon at 1:30 and 2:30 and every evening at 5:15 and 8:15.

"The Spoilers," Rex Beach's stirring story of Alaska comes to the Macdonough for two weeks, commencing Sunday matinee, August 9. This picturesque, rugged romance of the North has a love story with splendid imagination that grips and holds the sympathies. "The Spoilers" presents the most stubborn, strenuous and exciting fight ever pictured. William Farnum plays the leading role in the picture.

Cabrila, D'Annunzio's stupendous photo spectacle with its cast of seven thousand people comes to the Macdonough soon for a two week's engagement.

OAKLAND PHOTO

Harold McGrath's novel, "The Man on the Box," lends its soil well to pictorialization. The opening scenes, laid on the vast plains of the West, thrill the audience with swift action, while the latter parts of the play create humorous complications resulting from the hero's impersonation of a coachman. Max Flegman plays the principal role, Lieutenant Bob Robertson, the wealthy adventurer, whose restless soul sent him searching for excitement in Indian fighting on the frontier.

Lollita Robertson interprets the impulsive heroine, Betty Annesley, with the surety of complete understanding in a difficult role. The acting of James Neil as Colonel Annesley reminds one of the masterly conception of this player's greatest work ten years ago in the James Neil Stock Company, with Edith Chapman, when they created a large following in all of the principal cities on the Pacific Coast.

Numerous spectacular scenes, consisting of an exciting cavalry charge over the top of a steep hill, a desperate battle with rockings at a stockade gate and the attack on a settler's wagon train by a bloodthirsty band of savages, show the picture's effects and its power to entertain.

After numerous tangled situations, likely to be caused by the action of an irresponsible young man deeply in love, Max Flegman, as the lieutenant, is discovered, and the couple are married.

Mary Pickford as little Red Ridinghood is a most delightful little girl and pleases old and young alike. The Pathe Weekly has many interesting topics, notably the Elks' parade and convention in Denver, and the King and royal family of Bulgaria and a cracking good Key-

IDORA

Never have the attractions at Idora Park, Oakland's big amusement place, been so well patronized as yesterday when a banner crowd attended. The Jardin de Danse, with its show of dancing, was the great photodrama, "The Whipping Post" in Idora Park theater, the last performance of "A Virginia BALTIMORE, Md., May 23, 1914.—"My limbs from knee to ankle were completely covered with eczema for a year.
